If Mildura is an oasis of greenery and abundance in the normally dry Mallee region, then Pied-à-terre is similarly a refuge of spaciousness and style within the town itself. In fact, this 1940s home has been renovated and decorated with such verve by owner Vicki Collett it should go right to the top of any visitor's "must-stay" accommodation list.

Located in a quiet street a few blocks from the city centre and Murray River, Pied-à-terre (the name is used in France for "second home") is as luxurious as it is stylish. Guests have the use of the whole house, which includes multiple living areas from the main red-carpeted lounge to the sun-room out the back, and of course the rear courtyard with its shady verandah (and BBQ) for making the most of the Sunraysia's famed warmth.

Bedrooms have their own colourful themes from cool white to hot crimson, and there is a full kitchen and dining room to test your culinary skills with Mildura's bounteous produce. A very stylish home away from home.

Location: 545 km or six hours northwest of Melbourne. Map 1. Melway X914 B5.
Facilities: One house: five queen bedrooms (one upstairs with ensuite and office), bathroom, kitchen, dining, lounge (LCD TV, surround sound, CD, DVD), sunroom, laundry, individual ducted AC to each room, free WiFi, outdoor entertaining area (gas BBQ), undercover parking for four cars/boats. Full breakfast provisions provided.
